

BLACK MUSLIM MEN UNITED FOR A BETTER PHILADELPHIA

OUR MISSION & VISION

Black Muslim Men United for a Better Philadelphia (BMMU) is a not for profit organization headquartered in the Germantown section of Philadelphia.

With a mission to dynamically improve the quality of life in our communities, we have been providing free resident driven programs and services in a comprehensive and holistic posture for the past 30 years throughout the city of Philadelphia with an emphasis on anti-violence and anti-drug.

Our philosophy for addressing and arresting these plaguing issues is to channel them through our 4-step model that focuses on Spirituality, Education, Entrepreneurship and Civic Awareness. We strongly believe that this approach has been the catalyst of our success, thus motivating us to structure workshops sharing our methods with others who wish to model it.

OUR PROGRAMS

Empowerment Junction: a groundbreaking community program designed to uplift and empower young individuals through our comprehensive 4-step model. By addressing the multifaceted needs of our participants, we aim to foster holistic growth and create pathways to success.

Anti-Violence Initiative: a proactive community program dedicated to addressing and reducing violence in our neighborhoods. Through a multi-faceted approach, we aim to tackle the root causes of violence while providing support and resources to individuals and communities affected by it.

Anti-Drug Initiative: a comprehensive community initiative aimed at combating drug abuse and addiction in our neighborhoods. Through education, prevention, and support, we strive to reduce the harmful impact of drugs on individuals, families, and communities.

PROGRAM HIGHLIGHTS

Crisis Intervention: grants us access to information beyond the reach of law enforcement, enabling us to implement preventive measures in most cases before situations escalate.

Saturday Workshops: provides participants with positive alternatives, offering opportunities to explore new approaches and break away from familiar routines.

Sporting Competitions: supportive, non-judgmental space where youth can connect and build relationships, all while receiving valuable mentorship.
